

Peer Revision Checklist

Editor's Name _____ Per. _____

Writer's Name _____

Directions: Check only if correct

Does the paper have a clear thesis?

- purpose or controlling idea
- title of work being written about
- subject or main ideas to be developed presented
- interesting opening

Explain any item not checked.

Paragraph structure

- has a strong topic sentence which encompasses entire paragraph
- closely follows the outline in sequence
- has at least two concrete details
- has supporting commentary
- has a concluding sentence
- has good transition

Explain any item not checked. Write which paragraph(s) contain errors.

Grammar

- one voice used throughout essay
- one verb tense used throughout essay
- correct punctuation of titles
- correct spelling
- subject verb agreement
- no pronouns without antecedents

Explain any item not checked. Write which paragraph(s) contain errors.

Sentencing

- correct sentencing (no run ons or fragments)
- uses a variety of sentence openings
- uses a variety of sentences (simple, compound, compound-complex)
- good transition- one sentence flows into the next

Explain any item not checked. Write which paragraph(s) contain errors.

Conclusion

- has purpose been proven
- have major points been summed up
- does essay have a definite end

Explain any item not checked. Write which paragraph(s) contain errors.
